TABLE OF CONTENTS

LIST OF FIGURES xiii

LIST OF TABLES xv

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY & REPORT HIGHLIGHTS 1

1. Spending overview 1
2. Children in care overview 1
3. Foster care 2
4. Children's homes 3
5. Adoption services 4
6. Other children's services 5
7. Quality and regulation of children's care services 6
8. Special education 7
9. Major providers of children's care and special education 9

TERMINOLOGY INTRODUCTION 11

1. OVERVIEW OF SPENDING ON CHILDREN'S SOCIAL CARE & SPECIAL EDUCATION 13
   - 1.1 LaingBuisson UK estimates & projections 13
   - 1.2 The UK GDP deflator 15
   - 1.3 Gross spending on children and young people's social care in England 15
     - 1.3.1 Gross spending trends in recent years 15
     - 1.3.2 Prospects for spending on children's social care over the next 5 years 17

2. CHILDREN IN CARE – AN OVERVIEW 19

3. FOSTER CARE 25
   - 3.1 Profile of children in foster care 25
   - 3.2 Demand for foster care 26
     - 3.2.1 Recent demand trends 26
     - 3.2.2 Fostering by sector 27
     - 3.2.3 Regional fostering trends 29
   - 3.3 Supply of fostering services 29
   - 3.4 Spending on foster care 32
   - 3.5 Foster care prices and operating margins 33
   - 3.6 Government policy on foster care & future trends 35
     - 3.6.1 Promoting longer-term fostering arrangements 35
     - 3.6.2 Pool of foster carers 36
     - 3.6.3 Spending and prices 37
     - 3.6.4 Independent sector share and a level playing field 37
     - 3.6.5 Business diversity 37
     - 3.6.6 Quality 37

4. CHILDREN'S RESIDENTIAL HOMES 39
4.1 Profile of children in children's homes 39
4.2 Demand for children's homes 39
4.3 Average stay & placement stability 41
4.4 Supply of children's homes 42
4.4.1 Regional demand & supply 44
4.5 Spending on children's residential homes 45
4.6 Children's home prices 46
4.6.1 Average children's home prices 46
4.6.2 Price movement over time 48
4.6.3 Pricing structure 49
4.7 Future trends & issues for children's homes 49
4.7.1 Future demand & increased outsourcing 50
4.7.2 Spending & prices 50
4.7.3 Government review & future policy changes 52
4.7.4 Sufficiency duty 52
4.7.5 Smarter commissioning & commissioning efficiencies 53
4.7.6 Benchmarking commissioning prices (Fair Price for Care) 54
4.7.7 Quality 55
4.7.8 New areas of demand 56
4.7.9 Primary resource, not last resort 57

5. ADOPTION 59
5.1 Adoption demand trends 59
5.1.1 Recent demand trends 59
5.1.2 Adoptions by age 62
5.2 Adoption supply 63
5.3 Spending on adoption services 65
5.4 Government policy on adoption & future trends 65

6. OTHER CHILDREN'S AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S SERVICES 69
6.1 Leaving care support services 69
6.1.1 Leaving care demand trends 69
6.1.2 Spending on leaving care services 69
6.1.3 Government policy on leaving care services and future trends 70
6.2 Safeguarding – social work, commissioning and strategy, & local safeguarding support 74
6.2.1 Social services referrals, children in need and Child Protection Plans (CPPs) 74
6.2.2 Spending on safeguarding 75
6.2.3 High usage of agency social workers 75
6.2.4 Outsourced/delegated social work activities 76
6.3 Other children and young people's services 79

7. QUALITY AND REGULATION OF CHILDREN'S CARE SERVICES 83
7.1 Quality and regulatory overview in England 83

7.2 Regulatory overview in Wales 85
7.3 Regulatory overview in Scotland 85
7.4 Regulatory overview in Northern Ireland 86
7.5 Quality ratings and provider risk in England 86
7.5.1 Children's homes 86
7.5.2 Fostering agencies 88
7.5.3 Adoption agencies 88
7.5.4 Local authority children's services 88
7.6 Future regulatory & inspection developments for children's care and wider children's services 90

8. SPECIAL EDUCATION 93
8.1 Introduction and definitions 93
8.2 Pupils attending and spending on special schools and special colleges 93
8.3 Reforms of the Children's and Families Act 2014 96
8.4 Demand for special education in schools 99
8.4.1 EHC Plan/Statemented demand 99
8.4.2 Regional share of EHC Plans/Statements 102
8.4.3 Special educational needs profile in special schools 103
8.4.4 Special education for pupils without EHC Plans/Statements 104
8.4.5 UK special education demand estimates 106
8.4.6 Demand for post-16 special education 107
8.5 Future demand drivers for independent sector special schools and special colleges 108
8.5.1 Population growth 108
8.5.2 Prevalence of special educational needs and 'high needs' 108
8.5.3 Incidence of EHC Plans 109
8.5.4 Parental/student right to request an educational facility (mainstream vs specialist education and public sector vs independent sector) 109
8.5.5 Local authority high needs education budgets 2015/16 – 2019/20 109
8.5.6 Commissioning & outsourcing preferences, prices – dependency on the independent sector 110
8.6 Sources of funding for special needs education 112
8.6.1 High needs funding streams (public sector, England) 112
8.6.2 Recent high needs funding trends 113
8.6.3 Future prospects for high needs funding 114
8.7 Special school fees 115
8.8 Supply of special schools and special colleges 116
8.8.1 Special school and college supply in England 116
8.8.2 Capacity trends for special schools and colleges 118
8.8.3 Occupancy trends for special schools and colleges 119
8.8.4 Relative market power of purchasers and providers 120
8.8.5 Regional variations in supply of independent sector special education' 121
8.8.6 New independent special school and college capacity 122
8.9 Regulatory/inspection changes in England 123

9. MAJOR PROVIDERS OF CHILDREN'S CARE AND SPECIAL EDUCATION 127
9.1 Overview of major providers 127
9.1.1 Integrated services and the pyramid of children and young people's services 127
9.1.2 Differentiation of services 129
9.1.3 Ownership sector 132
9.1.4 Concentration of major providers 133
9.2 Market leaders 133
9.3 Growth and consolidation of major providers 134
9.4 Financial profile 137
9.4.1 Profitability 137
9.4.2 Assets 140
9.5 Private equity 141
9.6 Review of major providers (56 companies covered) 143

REFERENCES 159

APPENDIX 1 – UK GDP DEFLATOR 161

FINANCIAL APPENDIX 163

LIST OF FIGURES

Figure 1.1	Children and young people's social care services and special education market values for England by provider sector (independent sector & public sector ('the state')) – 2015/16 projections for children's social care services, and 2015 estimates for special education	14
Figure 1.2	Independent (private/voluntary) sector share of local authority children's services spending by service type, England 2014/15	14
Figure 1.3	Gross spending on local authority children and young people's services in England (excluding Children's Centres & Early Years) in nominal and real terms, 2010/11–2014/15	16
Figure 2.1	Trends in numbers of looked after children, England 1988–2015	19
Figure 3.1	Percentage share of foster placements by placement type at 31 March, England, 2013–2015	25
Figure 3.2	Children looked after in foster care in England at 31 March by sector of placement (IFAs and local authority in-house), 2009–2015	28
Figure 3.3	Spending on foster care in England at 31 March by sector of placement, 2009–2015	33
Figure 4.1	Children looked after in homes in England, by provider sector, at year end 2000/01–2014/15 (LaingBuisson estimates)	41
Figure 4.2	Share of places and share of looked after children in children's homes (including secure homes, excluding residential schools and other residential settings) by region in England, at 31 March 2015	44
Figure 4.3	Expenditure on children's homes in England at 31 March by sector of placement, 2009–2015	46
Figure 4.4	Average weekly price[1] per looked after child in children's homes in England, derived by LaingBuisson, 2009/10 to 2014/15	48
Figure 5.1	Court adoption orders in England and Wales, 2011 Q1 to 2015 Q3	60
Figure 5.2	Number of children ceasing care (being looked after) with a special guardianship order by guardianship type, England, 2010/11 to 2014/15	62
Figure 8.1	Special school demand trends by sector (public and independent), England 2007–2015	94
Figure 8.2	Breakdown of special education by provider sector, market share by volume and value, England 2015	96
Figure 8.3	Pupils with EHC Plans/Statements of Special Educational Needs in England by type of school pupil is attending, January 1995 to January 2015	100
Figure 8.4	Pupil profile – distribution of pupils in maintained and non-maintained special schools in England by category of need, January 2015	104

Figure 8.5 SEN (special educational needs) penetration of all pupils in England – SEN pupils with EHC Plan/Statement and SEN pupils without EHC Plan/Statement – by sector, January 2001 – January 2015 105

Figure 8.6 Share of school pupils with EHC Plans/Statements for England, Wales and Northern Ireland, 2004–2015, 2009/10 and 2014/15 106

Figure 8.7 Top up and other funding for high needs education in England by education sector and provider type, 2013/14 (actual), 2014/15 (actual) and 2015/16 (planned) 114

Figure 8.8 Places in special schools and colleges in England by type of school (school numbers shown in brackets), at start of 2016 117

Figure 8.9 Special school capacity trends by sector (public and independent), England 2007–2015 119

Figure 8.10 Occupancy rates reported by Priory Group's special education division 2010–2015 120

Figure 9.1 The pyramid of children and young people's services offered by independent sector providers of children's care and special education 128

Figure 9.2 EBITDAR margin (for children's services only) of largest five major providers of children's homes and special education, 2008–2015 139

LIST OF TABLES

Table 1.1 Children & young people's social care services[1] & special education spending (market value) in England, 2014/15 & 2015/16 projection, and in the UK, 2014 & 2015 estimates 13

Table 1.2 Gross spending on local authority children and young people's services in England (excluding children's centres and early years), annual real growth, and real expenditure index, 2010/11–2014/15 16

Table 1.3 Share of children and young people's services spending[1] by service type, England, 2010/11 & 2014/15 17

Table 2.1 Number of children in care (looked after children) in the UK 2010 and 2015, and number of care applications received by CAFCASS in England, 2009/10 and 2014/15 20

Table 2.2 Children in care (looked after children) as a % of the under 18s population by region at 2010 and 2015, and growth in under 18s penetration by region 20

Table 3.1 Number of children looked after in foster care in the UK & penetration of the under 18s population, 2010–2015 (including data for England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland) 27

Table 3.2 Number of children looked after by foster carers sourced by Independent Fostering Agencies (IFAs) in Great Britain (including data for England, Scotland and Wales), and IFAs share of total fostered children, 2010–2015 28

Table 3.3 Share of foster placements by region in England – local authority agencies and independent fostering agencies, and penetration of under 18s population by region, & local authority fill rate, at 31 March 2014 29

Table 3.4 Foster care fill rates for local authority agencies (LAs) & independent fostering agencies (IFAs) in England, 2010 to 2015 30

Table 3.5 Length of time fostered children had lived in their most recent placement in England – at 31 March 2013 & 31 March 2014 31

Table 3.6 Local authority gross spending on foster care in England split by provider sector (independent and public), real growth and real expenditure index, 2009/10–2014/15 and 2015/16 (projection), and UK estimates 2013–2015 32

Table 3.7 Average gross local authority spending (price)[1] per looked after child placed in foster care in England, IFA and local authority agency (in-house), 2010/11–2014/15 35

Table 4.1 Number of children looked after in residential care homes in the UK at 31 March, 2010–2015 (including estimates for England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland) 40

Table 4.2 Time spent in placement which ceased in children's homes (including secure units & hostels)[1] in England during year, 2011/12–2014/15 41

Table 4.3 Children's home[1] capacity by provider sector, England, 2005/06–2015 42

Table 4.4 Children's home capacity by sector and type of home, England at 31 March 2015 43

Table 4.5	Local authority gross spending on children's residential homes in England 2009/10–2014/15 and 2015/16 (projected), and UK estimates 2013–2015	45
Table 5.1	Adoption orders in courts, England & Wales, 1998–2014, and adoptions from care, England & Wales, 2008–2015	59
Table 5.2	Number of looked after children for adoption in the UK at 31 March, 2010–2015 (including estimates for England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland)	60
Table 5.3	Children waiting to be adopted from care, and average time waiting for adoption, England, 2009–2015	61
Table 5.4	Share of adoption orders in courts by adopted child age group, England & Wales, Calendar 2011 & Calendar 2014	62
Table 5.5	Adoptions by agency sector, and percentage share of voluntary agency adoptions by agency, England, 2012/13–2013/14	63
Table 5.6	Local authority gross spending on adoption services for children and young people in England 2009/10–2014/15 and 2015/16 (projected), and UK estimates 2013–2015	64
Table 6.1	Number of children & young people aged 16+ leaving care (no longer looked after) in England at 31 March, 2010–2015	69
Table 6.2	Local authority gross spending on leaving care support services for children and young people in England 2009/10–2014/15 & 2015/16 (projected), and UK estimates 2013–2015	70
Table 6.3	Referrals to children's social services, children in need, and Child Protection Plans (CPPs) in England, 2005–2015	74
Table 6.4	Local authority gross spending on safeguarding in England 2010/11–2014/15 & 2015/16 (projected), and UK estimates 2013–2015	75
Table 6.5	Local authority gross spending on other categories of children' services in England, real growth and real expenditure index, 2010/11–2014/15	80
Table 7.1	Distribution of quality ratings across children's homes, independent fostering agencies, and voluntary adoption agencies in England at 31 March 2012–2015, and at 30 September 2015 for children's homes only	87
Table 7.2	Distribution of Ofsted quality ratings for independent sector (private/voluntary) children's homes and local authority children's homes in England at 30 September 2015	87
Table 7.3	Distribution of Ofsted ratings for independent sector (private/voluntary) children's homes in England subject to a full inspection at 30 September 2015	88
Table 7.4	Ofsted ratings for 74 local authority children's services in England at 30 November 2015 and comparisons between the single inspection framework (November 2013 to 30 November 2015) and the previous inspection framework (pre November 2013)	89
Table 8.1	Pupils attending and spending (market value) on special schools and special colleges by sector in England, and UK whole market spending estimate, 2015 experimental statistics[1]	95

Table 8.2	Number of pupils with Statements of Special Educational Needs/EHC Plans by school sector in England, January 1995 to January 2015	101
Table 8.3	Number of pupils with EHC Plans/Statements of Special Educational Needs in independent special schools and other independent schools in England, January 2010 to January 2015	101
Table 8.4	Regional (local authority) share of pupils with EHC Plans/Statements in England – all statements and statements in independent special schools, other independent schools, and non-maintained special schools at 1 January 2015	102
Table 8.5	SEN (special educational needs) penetration of all pupils in England – SEN pupils with EHC Plan/Statement and SEN pupils without EHC Plan/Statement – by sector, January 2001 – January 2015	105
Table 8.6	Schools, pupils and pupils with EHC Plans/Statements by category of school, UK most recent statistics	107
Table 8.7	Top up and other funding for high needs education in England by education sector and provider type, 2013/14 (actual), 2014/15 (actual) and 2015/16 (planned), £000s	115
Table 8.8	Number of independent special schools and special colleges and places offered in England, by sector (for-profit and not-for-profit), by groups and non-groups, and occupancy (as implied by EduBase and Ofsted), Autumn 2015	118
Table 8.9	Share (%) of independent special school places and special college places by region in England, Autumn 2015	121
Table 8.10	New registrations by Ofsted of independent special schools in England, 2013–2015	122
Table 9.1	Top 20 independent sector providers of children homes in UK by number of homes, and top 12 independent fostering providers in UK by volume of looked after children at start of 2016 (LaingBuisson estimates)	131
Table 9.2	Leading providers of independent special schools and colleges, top 20 in order of capacity, England, at Autumn 2015	132
Table 9.3	Leading providers of children's care and special education services in the UK by revenue, 2012–2015	135
Table 9.4	Consolidation deals in the children's care and special education sector since 2014	136
Table 9.5	Profitability of (for-profit) leading providers of children's care and special education – EBITDAR & EBITDA margins %, 2012–2015	138
Table 9.6	Revenue, fixed tangible assets and net assets of major providers, in their most recent financial period	140
Table 9.7	Private equity investors in children's care and special education sector – schedule of current investors, and schedule of investors in the recent past	142
Table A1	Implied GDP deflator at market prices, 2000–2015 and 1999/00–2014/15 & 2015/16–2019/20 projections	161